

I am writting in opposition to the BPL proposal. The interfearence to HAM operators will be to great of a burden. The technology sounds interesting and I would fully support it without the interfearence factor. Send this one back to the drawing board.